Coiner Cross Country Racing Report

Jeremy Coiner - Conditions: PERFECT!
Course: Rocky, Technical but it flowed
well.

Coiner Racing headed to the out skirts of NV to the small town of Caliente to contest Round 5 of the AMA West National Hare Scrambles. The course was a 15 mile loop that consisted of sand whoops, deep sand sections, tight single track, a couple technical down hills,
some water crossings and even a small grass MX track. Other than Clear Creek, at Rnd 2, I thought this was the best course we rode all year.

Continued

Jeremy lined up with 121 other AA/A/B racers for the final race of the day which started almost an hour late. Jeremy's Mach1/SRT/SixFive0 backed KTM 300 was fresh and ready to go! When the green flag dropped for the B Line, Jeremy landed another hole shot and lead the field around the Motorcross
track and out into the back country.
After lap 1 he was still leading the B

Open class and running 3 O/A in the entire B class.

Lap 3 he came in for some fresh 100% goggles, and gas. He was filled and

At the conclusion of the race, Jeremy ended up 1st in the B Open Class, 3rd Overall in the B Class, and 45th O/A in the entire race. I couldn't be more proud of him. He pushed hard the entire race and got some good results for doing so.

Due to some circumstances beyond our control we're going to miss the Idaho City Qualifier next weekend. We love that race, but there is always next year. So our next stop will be Round 6 of the AMA West National Hare Scrambles in Elkton OR.

Thank you all for supporting us in the sport we love so much.

gone in less than 15 seconds thanks to our IMS Quick Dump system. At this time less than 2 minutes separated 1st - 3rd in the B Class. It was fun watch them race.

Fools Gold Up-Date

A Big Thank You to everyone who helped in putting on our 2015 Fools Gold Enduro. It was a great success with most all of the riders completely satisfied with the course lay out and the over-all quality of the event.

Thank you to Don Amador for helping out with our event.

It was great up working the Fools Gold Enduro this last weekend. Great event and great trail system. The Mace Mill OHV Area on the Eldorado NF rocks. Great FS trail staff too!
